IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

TREVOR PRIGGETT,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:18-po-00078-SAB

ORDER GRANTING IN PART STIPULATION
TO MODIFY TERMS OF PROBATION
PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3563; FED. R.
CRIM. P. 32.1(C)

(ECF No. 30)

On June 25, 2020, the Court sentenced Trevor Priggett to 5 days of imprisonment, to be served on weekends, beginning on October 2, 2020. (ECF No. 29.) On September 28, 2020, the parties filed a stipulation to modify the terms of Defendant’s probation due to the COVID-19 pandemic to change the date by which Defendant is to self-surrender to serve the time in custody.

The parties seek to extend the date for Defendant to self-surrender to January 8, 2021. However, the Court considers that at this time, the infection rate in this area is decreasing, and the restrictions due to COVID-19 have been eased as Fresno County has met the conditions to be moved to a lower tier and is moving toward reopening. Further, it is potentially likely that the infection rate could worsen by January 2021. Accordingly, the Court will grant in part the stipulation of the parties and Defendant shall be ordered to self-surrender on November 6, 2020.

For the reasons set forth above, the Court GRANTS IN PART the parties’ request to modify the terms of Defendant Trevor Priggett’s probation. The Court modifies Defendant

1 Priggett's conditions of probation as follows:

2 Condition 5 is hereby modified effectively immediately to read: "The defendant is
3 committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total of 5
4 days. The defendant shall self-surrender on November 6, 2020, at 10:00 am to Sunday,
5 November 8, 2020, at 5:00 pm. Consecutive weekends to be served for a total of 5 days."

6 All other conditions of Defendant's probation shall remain in full force and effect.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.

9 Dated: October 1, 2020
